

i-Hub Integrated Design Studios Symposium

Three free events • October 25–27, 2021

Discovering the sustainable pathways to affordable heating and cooling

AIRAH and the Innovation Hub for Affordable Heating and Cooling (i-Hub) are hosting a free Symposium about the Integrated Design Studios (IDS) initiative. This knowledge-sharing opportunity will feature three two-hour sessions from October 25–27.

The interactive Integrated Design Studios Symposium offers updates and insights into the i-Hub IDS technologies and research sessions. Each of the three sessions runs from 12noon–2pm AEDT and includes a live panel session with key industry leaders.

You can register for any or all of the Symposium sessions via Eventbrite or by clicking the button below.

DAY ONE MONDAY, OCTOBER 25	The first session explores the latest updates to the IDS schools and data centres, and the panel will discuss key IDS principles.
DAY TWO TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26	We'll dive into an update from the University of Wollongong and explore the IDS aquatic and aged-care facilities. Our panel will also cover key IDS practices.
DAY THREE WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 27	The Symposium ends with a presentation from representatives from the Queensland University of Technology. We'll hear about Zero Carbon Design Education and the Carbon Catalogue, along with the latest IDS findings and outputs. The panel will also look at the future of IDS and what's next.

We look forward to seeing you this October for the i-Hub Integrated Design Studios Symposium!
